Privacy Statement in relation to Policy Information

Coal Mines Insurance Pty Limited (CMI) provides workers compensation insurance to the coal industry in New South Wales.

We need to collect personal information from Employers so we can:

- Set up and administer the insurance policy for the Employer
- Perform our functions and exercise our powers under the Coal Industry Act 2001
- Assess a claim made under this policy
- Assess Employers and their needs
- Improve our services

Protecting privacy is a key part of our normal operations.

We do not disclose personal information to any outside third party organization, unless it is contracted to CMI to provide administrative services or activities on our behalf or it is necessary to disclose that information for the purposes of undertaking CMI's functions under the Coal Industry Act. In this case, we make sure that the third party is bound by the same privacy rules we follow.

You are entitled to access your own personal information being held. This information is generally provided upon request. We will take reasonable steps to ensure that any information being held is relevant, accurate, complete, up-to-date and not misleading. However, it is your responsibility to notify us when your details change.

Sometimes, CMI might use personal information to make policy-related material on products and services available to employers. An Employer may elect not to receive product related material by indicating below.

Please do not send product related material on CMI's range of products and services.

An employer may change their mind at any time about receiving product-related material by contacting Policy Services.
